* Call to Worship

The Christ of compassion invites you to rest in the peace of God’s Spirit.
It is not a peace that is undisturbed by the plight and cries of those in need.
The peace of Christ is given to those who are far off and to those who are near.
Together, we are the family of God.
Come, let us seek peace.
The Lord is with you.
And also with you.

God of splendor, as creation grows into full bloom during this season of summer, so do we seek to grown into your likeness. May the rain of your mercy fall upon us, the light of your love shine within us, and the peace that surpasses understanding nourish us. Draw those of us who are far off near. Push those of us who are near back into the world to share the good news of your salvation. Call us, guide us, and nourish us for Jesus is the Good Shepherd indeed. Amen.

The day of march has come;
Either we are walking toward God or away from God.
God calls to all of us, both near and far, and says, “Peace! We are one household together.”

God is able to make all things new! God is able!

Go from this place as the reconciled people of God.

We go trusting in the Good Shepherd.
